GRADUATION DAY

Large Class Turned Out at Sanitarium School—Fine Program

The cosy auditorium of the new West Third street intermediate school was the scene last Tuesday night of the commencement exercises of the class of 1912 of the Glendale Sanitarium hospital, an institution that has won a well-merited renown in many parts.

The hall which was in attractive and appropriate evening dress, was comfortably filled with the relatives and friends of the eight graduates who were there to receive their reward for the two years and three months of conscientious, faithful and sincere devotion to the course of training they had entered upon to fit themselves for the walk of life they have chosen.

The faculty is and has just cause to be proud of them. And as they marched upon the stage last night preceded by that faculty, the audience could not help feeling a quickening of the pulses.

As they sat there before a background of green pepper tree boughs, on which had been interwoven with the class colors, purple and gold, the class motto, in white letters, "Nearer God—Nearer Humanity," they inspired many deep thoughts and deeper feelings in the minds of those who had gathered to be with them.

They are more than nurses. They are more than missionaries. Their training has equipped them for the double service of ministering to the physical needs as well as to the spiritual needs and to the spiritual as well as to the physical.

The exercises began promptly at 8 o'clock, when Miss Arville Moran, at the piano, struck up a march to which the different classes stepped into the hall and were seated just in front of the stage, which was artistically decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. All were in uniform and wore rosettes of their respective class colors.

The first number on the program was a vocal selection by a quartet composed of Miss Lillian Santee, Miss Arville Moran, Mr. C. H. Jones and Mr. Harold Ackerman. It was very appropriate and beautifully rendered. This was followed by the invocation by Elder Marvin. "Not Forgotten," a vocal solo by Mr. Culver was the next number and won much applause. Elder R. S. Owen of Loma Linda then delivered a simple, dignified address, which therefore was most impressive. Two points the speaker dwelt most emphatically on. That there are two kinds of education, the true, and the false. And that in giving we receive.

Elder Owen was followed by Miss Elizabeth Wands of Los Angeles, who in exquisite voice with harp accompaniment gave a rendition of "Christ Is Real to Me."

After giving a bit of the history of the inception of the present system of combining the two courses of training which has resulted in so much good, Dr. D. D. Comstock presented the following graduates with diplomas: R. Rose Hesse, Walter H. Kramer, Rosetta A. Baker, William J. Eckerle, Chester E. Strack, George A. Reaser, Grace Ford and Hazel Stout. P. J. D. Wessels followed Dr. Comstock with a cello solo, "Traumerel," which he rendered with much feeling. Miss Hesse's class paper, which she said was both welcome and a farewell, was very clever.

Mr. Jones then asked all to stand and join in singing that dear old song, "Holy, Holy, Holy."

The exercises were brought to a close by Dr. Diefenbacher, who pronounced the benediction.

The sanitarium faculty of 1912 is composed of D. D. Comstock, M.D., H. F. Rand, M.D., J. R. Lindsword, B.S., M.D., Jeannette Brown-Rand, M.D., Belle Wood-Comstock, M.D., Elder C. F. Marvin, Lillian Santee, Pearl Olds, C. H. Jones, T. T. Dock, Mrs. T. S. Dock, Mrs. Jeannette Smith and Earl W. Culver.

The plans of the graduates are varied. Some will take postgraduate courses and some will immediately enter the foreign missionary fields. All are enthusiastic and in love with their chosen work. Wherever they may go, they will be followed by the best wishes of relatives, friends and those to whom they have ministered during their years of training.

CITY TRUSTEES

Several Petitions Considered—Country Club House Offered for Sale to City

All members present.

Mr. Lee, on behalf of the First National Bank, stating that it is the intention to put up a building on the southeast corner of Broadway and Brand, requesting that the matter of curb line be settled and asking permission for pillars to project a few inches over property line. Referred to public works committee and city engineer.

The city engineer made a report on planting of black acacia trees on Kenwood street to the effect that petition represented required majority of franchise. Request granted.

A petition was received signed by 52 petitioners complaining of the nuisance existing in the shape of a barn. Mr. Wood, owner of the barn alluded to, appeared before the board stating that he is the owner of two adjoining lots upon which he intended to move the structure and that at present there are two vacant lots between the barn and the nearest residence except his own. It developed by an examination of the petition that some of the petitioners live two or three blocks away. Mr. Wood stated further that he intended to move the barn, but that this is also objected to. He promised to take some steps in any event, to make the place even less objectionable. Mr. Paul appeared as one of the petitioners, speaking of the offensive smell. He thought that as there is an ordinance limiting the number of horses, thought eight head of horses should not be kept in any one place in the city. The chairman stated that it is impracticable to limit the number of horses to be kept in any one place in the residence district, but suggested that the public welfare committee to report next week.

Mr. R. C. Sternberg appeared before the trustees with a proposition for the city to buy the property of the Glendale Country Club, for library purposes; stating that it could be bought for about $12,000, and that Mr. Brand, the principal owner, would be willing to take the Fifth street library lots in partial payment. Trustee Lane expressed himself as opposed to the proposition on account of the location being on car line where there is frequent passing of cars. Mr. Lane finally made a motion, seconded by Coker, that the matter be referred to a committee of three to investigate and report next week. The chairman appointed Trustees Tower, Coker and Thompson.

A protest against putting mail boxes in front of his lot on Louise street for rural delivery was made by Mr. Eley. Mr. Lockwood also protested against having the boxes bunched on the vacant lot which he owned on the opposite corner. The matter was referred to the street superintendent to issue permits and regulate the placing of boxes.

Mr. Lockwood called attention to the possible damage to property by storm water following a channel made by teams hauling sand out of the wash on Louise street. Referred to street superintendent and city engineer with full power.

Mr. Emery appeared with a request that street lights be left burning until 4 o'clock or 4:30 in the morning, as a protection to persons and property; referred to the manager of light department, who stated that the probable additional cost be about $100 a month.

Mr. C. D. Thom reported that he is ready to enter into contract for the improvement of the 400 feet of Verdugo road along his property; laid out a week. Mr. Emery asked for relief from the surplus of tin cans in "the alley." The chairman stated that the tin can subject was one of the bones of his daily existence. The marshal also contributed his portion of experience with tin can complaints. Mr. Harry Chase testified as to the nuisance of floating papers in the neighborhood of Broadway and Brand. The complaints were referred to the marshal.

An extension of 30 days was given E. A. McCombs on sidewalk work. The tax collector reported the sum of $167.98 collected week ending September 28th.

Plan of the lighting manager for the removal of poles on Broadway was approved. The public works committee agreed to inspect Verdugo road Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The night watchman made a report, the most interesting part of which was the statement to the effect that two and a half years ago there were 89 business establishments to be looked after and there are today 281 such establishments.

An ordinance calling a special bond election for $250,000 to be held Oct. 29th, was read and adopted (published elsewhere).

The city engineer was instructed to make a recommendation for the improvement of all alleys in territory bounded by Central avenue, Adams street, First and Sixth streets, also for placing culverts in same territory.

REV. HUMPHREY WILL ENTER ON FIFTH YEAR'S SERVICE.

The congregation of the First M. E. church has invited Rev. J. F. Humphrey to serve that church as pastor for another year, an invitation which Mr. Humphrey has accepted. The church under his charge has experienced great growth and will no doubt continue to prosper under his wise leadership.

BUSINESS EXCELLENT

Is the Opinion of Mr. Hacker

Mr. Hacker, connected with the National Hotel Register Co., was in Glendale the past week. His business takes him all over the United States and his observations are of more than average value owing to his unique opportunities to note the feeling of the people in all sections. Speaking of business in general he reports it never better. The political situation, he concedes, is unprecedented for a period so close in advance of a presidential election. People generally are not talking politics and the business world is apparently not afraid of any of the candidates, no longer considering as sincere either the promises of "Progressives" or Democrats to do anything radical. Personally Mr. Hacker is a Republican who does not believe in Roosevelt or the third party, and is of the opinion that Wilson is at present in the lead.

AT THE INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL.

Principal Brooks is rapidly getting things systematized and it is expected that the wisdom of establishing this school will be so well demonstrated that there will be no room left for doubt in regard to it. It not only relieves the other schools of an overcrowded condition but by taking from them the higher grades, enables all the teachers to do better work, giving a great advantage to the younger pupils. All grades above the sixth are in the intermediate school. Domestic science and sloyd are taught there exclusively, with the exception of the "Paper Sloyd" for the younger pupils. About 225 pupils are taking these two courses, equally divided between the two. The school provides all materials and tools except in cases where the pupils wish to make some particular article for their own use when they must furnish the material. Mr. Samuels has charge of the boys' work and in the play ground. Mr. Polley oversees the base ball. Miss Carrie Noble looks after the girls' athletics with assistance from other teachers. Two commodious lunch rooms have been provided, a large percentage of the pupils carry their lunches to school and all are under a teacher's supervision during the lunch hour.

The children are being made use of to establish discipline and are being taught something of personal responsibility with very good results.

A new departure introduced by Mr. Brooks is the making of reports upon the standing of pupils once a month instead of once a quarter, as heretofore, which will enable parents to keep better informed as to the progress of their children.

MARRIED.

Married at the home of Mr. Griffin in Sycamore Canyon on October 1st, Mrs. Effie D. Crawford of Oatman, Arizona, a sister of Mrs. Griffin, to Raymond Hyde Carr, of Kingman, Ariz., Dr. Ward officiating.

JUDGE WHOMES ATTENDS A SURPRISE PARTY.

Clarence Whomes, a grandchild of Recorder Whomes, was married in Los Angeles over a week ago to a young lady of that city. After the ceremony the young couple went on wedding trip to San Diego where they remained a week. On their return to their pleasant new home they were rather surprised at the apparent lack of interest taken in them by their numerous relatives, but that this was not genuine was proved by the arrival at their residence unannounced last Sunday evening of about twenty members of the Whomes family and others who took possession of the young couple and their effects. A few hours of gaiety followed and when the guests left there remained behind a large number of valuable tokens of the happy affair in the shape of wedding presents. The bride was former, Miss Alta Gray; the groom is a son of one of the six married sons of Judge Whomes.

MR. E. D. GOODE FOR SUPERVISOR

Mr. E. D. Goode of Glendale is a candidate for supervisor on the Democratic ticket. The fact of his being on that ticket should neither help nor hinder him, but his claims should be considered from an entirely non-partisan standpoint as the office he aspires to is non-political. The probability is therefore that Mr. Goode will receive a large vote in his home community, as he is generally known to be well qualified to perform the duties of that important office. Mr. Goode was for many years road foreman for this section of San Fernando Valley and has probably a better knowledge of the roads than any other man in the district. Aside from that qualification he has always shown the possession of an intelligent progressive public spirit and has a genius for "boosting" Glendale, Tropic, and in fact all this portion of the valley will no doubt get behind his candidacy and endeavor to get a local representative on the governing body of the county.

OUT-OF-TOWN LUNCHEON.

The members of St. Mark's Guild of Glendale were entertained at a luncheon on Thursday by Mrs. George Rehart of Vermont Square, Los Angeles. Decorations were artistically featured in astors of pastel shades. Aside from Los Angeles guests, those present were: Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. S. M. Witt, Mrs. Frank Grosvenor, Mrs. G. J. Russell, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, Mrs. R. H. Wells, Mrs. Scott Johnson, Mrs. A. McIntyre and Mrs. Henry Ward, president of the guild. A pleasant afternoon was spent at needle work.

TENT MEETINGS.

Mrs. (Prof.) E. A. Holtwick and Mrs. M. W. Law, state lecturers, will speak to ladies at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and to the general public at 7:45 p. m. in the tent on Orange street between Third and Fourth streets. Music will be furnished by the Maple Quartet.

GLENDALE'S GREAT LIGHT WAY

Ornamental Lighting System Installed—Immense Success and the Finest of Its Kind

Manager H. B. Lynch announced last week that the ornamental lighting system of the principal business streets of Glendale would go into operation on Tuesday night of this week, but he afterwards discovered that this date could be beaten by a little extra effort and the result of this discovery was that on Saturday evening of last week, Sept. 29th, Glendale's "Great Light Way" shone forth in a blaze of glory, the whole system working without a hitch when the switch was turned that let the electricity into the conductors. A large number of people from Glendale and even as far away as Tropic turned out on the streets to witness the display which in many a city of higher class than Glendale would be a notable one. It is in fact a notable triumph and places Glendale in the front rank of enterprising municipalities, for there is no other city in Southern California which has a better lighting system in its business center. The system comprises 136 standards, each containing five globes and every standard aggregating 275 candle power. The standards are placed at distances of about 100 feet apart on both sides of the streets covered, the light being so well distributed that good eyes can read ordinary print at any point within their radius.

Origin of the Scheme.

The idea of an ornamental lighting system for the business section of the city first occurred to Manager Lynch one day last September when he was waited upon by the officials of the Sunset Telephone company to see about getting their poles put under ground. The company agreed to his proposition provided that other public utility concerns, the city included, should do likewise. Working upon this idea of clearing the street of unsightly poles, it occurred to Mr. Lynch that streets free of these incumbrances in the heart of the city were worth something unusual in the way of ornamentation. He took the matter up with the trustees and then with the property owners, upon whom would fall the largest portion of the expense. The latter were called together in public meetings and dealt with personally and finally the large majority of them became enthusiastic over the project, all agreeing that if the scheme was carried out at all it must be on a scale second to nothing of the kind anywhere. As a result the material used is of the best, the globes being of the highest quality as is everything else connected with the job.

GLENDALE-EAGLE ROCK MAIL SERVICE

Post Office Established

The Glendale and Eagle Rock railway has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail between Eagle Rock and Glendale. A new postoffice has been established in Eagle Rock and the company carried the first consignment of mail to that point last Tuesday morning.

The eastbound mail leaves Glendale at 8:47 a. m. and 3:04 p. m.; Eagle Rock at 12:15 p. m. and 5:45 p. m. The new office at Eagle Rock will be located at the Eagle Rock Drug Store and Mr. W. E. Bruce, proprietor of the store will be postmaster.

HOME AGAIN.

City Attorney W. E. Evans returned to Glendale Tuesday after a vacation of a month. Mr. and Mrs. Evans went to San Diego where they spent an enjoyable week at the U. E. Grant hotel and in visiting places of resort in the vicinity. They then went to a summer resort on Palomar mountain, near Warner's Ranch, where they spent the remainder of their time until their return. Both Mr. and Mrs. Evans found plenty of exercise and excitement in roaming over the mountain hunting the large and small game that abounds in that section. They bagged the limit of gray squirrels and wild pigeons, but failed to bring home any lion scalps or deer horns, although the signs of those animals were numerous.

REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING.

Borthick Bros. report the real estate market active. They have made the following sales within the past two weeks:

Lot Maple and Brand, to Mr. Davis of Kansas, price $2000.

Two lots on Arden avenue near Brand to Mr. Jones, $900 each.

On Seventh street between Columbus and Central, one lot to Mr. Packard, $850.

To Smith & Rudy, the corner of Broadway and Orange, on which building now being started, $3250.

Lot 46 Oak Drive on Ninth street, to Mr. Taylor who will build.

Mr. F. Curtis of Ninth street drove up on his automobile from La Jolla a few days ago to pack up and prepare for departure for Marblehead, Mass., for the winter where he will continue his experiments as an aviator with a brother who is in the aero and hydroplane business there. Mr. Curtis has been taking lessons at Griffith Park under the directions of Aviator Gage and intends to specialize on hydroplanes. Mrs. Curtis remains at La Jolla until they take their departure for the East.

The Cost.

The property frontage was assessed at one dollar a linear foot and from this source the sum of $10,500 was derived. The total cost of the work was $15,000, the city paying for the cost of the underground work. 228 lots representing about 200 owners, were assessed for the work. One property owner paid $800, another $300, and several put up $200 each. The cost of the system to the city will be about $1.50 per standard monthly, of which the lighting department will pay one-half.

Proceedings in the publishing of notices, etc., began in April; contracts for material were let in May and actual work began in June. The lights on this circuit will be turned on automatically at dusk and off at 10:30 from the later hour until 1:30 a. m. every alternate top lamp will be burning.

Poles To Be Removed.

Mr. Lynch expects to have all the poles removed from Broadway with the exception of six or seven, and these will be steel poles less unsightly than the wooden ones in use. In the effort to get the poles removed, Mr. Lynch has had the active cooperation of the Sunset Telephone people who promptly went to work to get their wires under ground. The Home Telephone poles and those of the railroad company and of the city will soon disappear; the railroad trolley to be connected with a carrying wire attached to poles in the alleys. The next job to be completed is the West Glendale ornamental system, much more modest in its scope, which will probably be completed by the first of November. In carrying out his plans for this important work, Mr. Lynch has been fortunate in having so capable a foreman as Mr. Dietrich, who came to Glendale from the Pasadena Municipal Lighting plant and has proved himself to be the right man in the right place.

In this connection it is of interest to note that the municipal lighting system which began with a list of 195 consumers about two years ago, has now over 1600, as many of these as the original 195 being added in the last three months.

HEARD ON THE TELEPHONE.

"Hello, Glendale!" "Yes, this is Glendale." "Where's the fire?" "What fire?" "What fire?" "Why, there's a big light up that way, seems to be about Fourth and Glendale." "Oh, that's our new ornamental lighting system." "What? Eh, oh, good-bye."

A large number of the members were present. During the business meeting Mrs. Ed. Lee was elected to fill the office of chaplain, following the resignation from that office of Mrs. F. W. H. Dow. Roll call was answered by vacation reminiscences.

SCHOOL FUNDS AND TAXES.

The apportionment to the Glendale Union high school from the state fund just distributed, is $1632.65.

The special tax levied on the district is $35,000. Last year's special tax was $30,000.

The grammar schools receive from the state $6000. The special tax on the district is $13,800. Last year's special tax was $9000.

The county tax rate has been fixed by the supervisors at 1.30, and the road tax at 50 cents.

NEW TREASURER FOR FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD.

Mr. C. H. Cushing, who for several years past has been treasurer for the local lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood, has resigned that position and Mrs. Susie J. Hunt has been selected as his successor. Mr. Cushing has been made librarian of the Tropic Library and intends to give his time to building up that institution hereafter. Members of the fraternity are requested to make payments hereafter to Mrs. Hunt.

GLENDAL, CAL., OCTOBER 4, 1912

One of our "oldest inhabitants" who wagers money on the weather every year, is lamenting the loss of nine good dollars which he would still possess if rain had fallen during September. It rained October first. He should have remembered the good old rhyme beginning "Thirty days hath September."

One of the alleged arguments being used against President Taft in certain circles, is based upon the unfounded assertion that he is a Catholic. If the assertion were true it would not prove him to be any the less a man and a patriot, but its untruthfulness is demonstrated by the fact that he is a member of the Unitarian church.

The interesting correspondence between then President Roosevelt and his friend Harriman, which was the most important news in the Associated Press budget of Tuesday morning, was conspicuous by its absence in the Los Angeles leading "Progressive" daily of that date. Even a great "Reform journal finds it necessary to edit carefully the news items served up to a trusting constituency.

A PUBLIC FORUM.

A great political campaign is now in progress in which every citizen should feel a deep interest. This paper has its own convictions as to the merits of the different aspirants for the presidency, but concise arguments containing not more than 500 words in favor of Roosevelt, Wilson, Debs or Chafin will be cheerfully given space in our columns over the names of the authors. Contributions are therefore requested, but no more than one in favor of any one candidate will be published each week. Have your contributions at the NEWS office by Wednesday afternoon.

ESTABROOK TO JOHNSON.

The NEWS is in receipt of an open letter from F. W. Estabrook, member of the National Republican committee, from New Hampshire, to Hiram W.
Johnson, candidate for vice president of the United States. He uses for a text the following extract from a speech made by Mr. Johnson on Sept.
5th in which he is quoted as follows:
"Do not for a moment consider the president in this race. He is a negligible quantity. It is with shame as an American citizen, that I say today the most humiliating character in American history is the president of the United States."

Mr. Estabrook terms Mr. Johnson's remark above quoted as "unfair and disrespectful," in which we heartily concur. The whole letter is a strong, dignified and logical document which,
if we had space to spare, we should be glad to reproduce.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

Not in the spirit of vengeance, but in the belief that the fear of death has a deterrent influence upon a certain class of criminals who are willing to commit murder if by so doing they can accomplish their end, we are opposed to the abolition of capital punishment, believing that the only thing required to make the law more effective in the protection of the lives of the people who are not criminals, is that the punishment should be more swift and sure. The punishment of the murderer by death is not contrary to any wholesome religious spirit, the opposition to it being more material than spiritual. Dr. Chas. E. Locke of Los Angeles is one of the prominent ministers who has the courage to preach against the prevailing spirit of false sentiment in favor of the criminal class which the lawkeeping class must eventually pay for in the loss of property and life. His sermon on the subject of capital punishment delivered in Los Angeles last Sunday is good, wholesome doctrine.

POLITICS IN THE SCHOOL.

There are two subjects that are properly barred from our schools, and these are politics and religion. Citizens do not pay taxes and send their children to school to be told by the teachers how to vote. This is a matter that the school teacher is no better qualified to give instructions in than is any other intelligent citizen.
In Glendale the other day a young lady came home from school and said to her father, "Papa, I wish you would tell me something about the candidates for president, our teacher has been telling us we should vote for

The father very promptly advised her when she voted to vote as he did, which did not agree with the advice given by the teacher. But the point is this; school had begun only a day or two before; are the children in that school to be advised from day to day until election time to work and vote for the candidate of a certain political party? The usefulness of any teacher is going to be seriously impaired if he fancies that he has a call to work in the school for the interest of any political candidate.

AN OFFICIAL OUTRAGE.

The commutation of the sentence of the murderer Figueroa by Lieut.
Gov. Wallace, is an outrageous exercise of official power. The crime was one, without any palliating circumstances and the wretch who committed it should have suffered the extreme penalty months ago. It was only last week that we commended Governor Johnson for saying that he had no more right to set aside the law in regard to capital punishment than he had to abrogate any other law; and then having so expressed himself he left the state, doubtless with the understanding with his Lieutenant governor as to the action to be taken in this particular case. Since the present state administration came into power it has been very apparent that there was no intention of permitting the law to take its course in the case of criminals condemned to death. At the present time fifteen men found guilty by juries and condemned to death by judges in accordance with a just law, are in San Quentin prison with the practical assurance given by the state administration that regardless of juries and judges their worthless lives shall be saved. A namby-pamby sen-timentalism has secured a sufficient number of names to an initiative petition for the abolition of capital punishment, to bring the matter before the voters at the next election, and it will be possible for an uninformed electorate, forming its judgment from newspaper reports and sentimental appeals, to set aside the verdict of well-informed jurors and commute the sentences of the entire fifteen.

Meanwhile it will have become an historical fact that a governor and Lieutenant governor having taken solemn oaths to administer and obey the law, refused to permit the law to be effective. If Lieut. Gov. Wallace has such a tender feeling for criminals and so little regard for the welfare of society which is justified in extreme measures to protect itself, he should never have permitted himself to be placed in a position of authority.

THE OPTIMIST AND CURRENT EVENTS.

There are times when the optimist must feel that his hopeful view of things is all awry and that the pessimist has the better of the argument.
About the time that he has convinced himself by dint of frequent reiterations that the world is growing better, there occurs some sinister event that compels him to pause and look carefully into the facts as they appear.

The wisdom of all the ages recognizes the fact that in human governments law must be supreme or confusion will reign and chaos follow. Governments are built upon law which has for its basis, not the giving of perfect freedom to every individual, but the securing of the greatest freedom consistent with the welfare of the masses. The law is a compact entered into by the individual members of society whereby every single unit agrees for the sake of all others to sacrifice much of the freedom of action which might be his if he lived in a world by himself. This sacrifice is cheerfully made by the good citizen, and when that unhappy time comes that the majority of the people consider that their individual ideas are of more importance than the welfare of the mass of the people, when citizens begin to be a law unto themselves and to disregard the law that subverses the welfare of the community, the end of law and order is at hand.

There are features of the present condition of unrest which seem to world-wide, that are certainly difficult for the thoughtful student of affairs, however much of an optimist he may be, to view with equanimity. In the United States there is an organized body of people calling themselves the "Industrial Workers of the World," which openly advocates the reign of fraud and force. The menace which these people are to society lies not so much in their numbers, as in the fact that they are supported very largely by the expressed sympathy of a great many people who fancy themselves to be good citizens while expressing sympathy with these confessed enemies of organized society. No crime committed, however heinous it may be, but finds its apologists in large numbers among people who are not themselves violators of the law, but who encourage criminal acts through a mistaken twist of their human sympathy.

Education is considered by many as a moral agent, but these crimes against the law are in a perverted mentality unrestrained by the ordinary precepts of morality and religion.

The responsibility of these sympathizers with crime is very heavy, and however easily they may shift it from themselves for a while, it will if there exists that principle of eternal justice which the majority of civilized people believe in, finally come back upon them as a burden which they will find to be grievously heavy. The demand for new laws is not necessarily a wholesome or a hopeful sign, it may rather indicate a rebellion against the old ones established at the foundation of the world and expressed in the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount.

Jesus Walking on the Sea. Mark vi:45-56.

Golden Text—Straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I: be not afraid. Matt. xiv:27.

(1.) Verse 45—Why did Jesus hurry off the apostles by ship so soon after feeding the multitude and when they were gone dismiss the people? (See John vi:15.)

(2.) Why were the apostles so unwilling to go that Jesus had to "restrain" them?

(3.) When God intimates to us a certain course of conduct contrary to our judgment or wishes is it ever right to hesitate or discuss the matter with him, and why?

(4.) Why did Jesus not want them to make him their king?

(5.) Jesus was unwilling for them to make him their king, but do you think it would have made any difference in his decision if the rulers of the Jews and Rome had wanted him to be the king of the Jews? Give your reasons. (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(6.) Verse 46—Why was Jesus now in great need of prayer and what do you think were the special subjects for which he prayed?

(7.) If Christians consciously or unconsciously "pray without ceasing" why is there still need for special seasons of prayer?

(8.) Verses 47-48—Why is it that God permits contrary winds and tumultuous seas in the experience of so many of his children?

(9.) What time, according to Roman reckoning, was the "fourth watch of the night?"

(10.) If God permits or plans for the life of one of his children what answers to "tolling in rowing all night" what does that indicate?

(11.) Verses 49-50—What are the reasons for our belief that Jesus walking on the sea is literal historic fact?

(12.) What were the mental, spiritual, theological or psychological grounds for their first opinion that it was a spirit they saw walking on the water?

(13.) What evidence is there that spirits have visible form or that under any conditions they can be seen and conversed with?

(14.) If it had been a spirit which they saw was there any reason why they should cry out with fear? Give your reasons.

(15.) When God comes within the vision of any good man is there ever any reason for fear? Why?

(16.) What reason is there to believe that the words of Jesus, "Be of good cheer," are always, in effect, being repeated to us?

(17.) Verses 51-52—Why may we rest assured that by taking Jesus on board we shall have a pleasant and a safe journey?

(18.) Why did they and why should we wonder and be "amazed" when God keeps his promises and comes to our rescue when in trouble?

(19.) Why do we so soon forget the great things which God has done for us?

(20.) Verses 53-56—If this wonder working Jesus were really known by the masses what would be the result? Lesson for Sunday, Oct. 13, 1912. Clean and Unclean. Mark vii:1-23.

PRINTING PLANT RUSHING TO REMEDY SCHOOL BOOK SHORTAGE.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 10.—The state printing plant is being run night and day in order to get the 1,500,000 pamphlets of amendments to the law ready in time for the election and to make up the shortage in school books. There is a shortage in spellers, arithmetics, English lessons, hygiene and readers, and orders are pouring in from all over the state.

Orders for printing school books are made by the state textbook committee, and early in May, State Printer Friend W. Richardson urged the printing of enough books during the fall summer months to prepare for the fall demand. Secretary B. S. Lobdell of the committee announced that there was plenty of books on hand. Hence many employees were laid off and school book machinery was shut down.

Superintendent Hyatt before leaving for the superintendents' convention at Catalina, said:

"The present book shortage is very embarrassing and should not have happened. The responsibility rests with Mr. Lobdell, who miscalculated and failed to put in orders in time for the fall opening of school. Repeated warnings were given but Mr. Lobdell felt certain of his estimates. The state printer is doing his best to relieve the situation and is running the book machinery to its fullest capacity."

GAMBLERS MISREPRESENT.

By Franklin Hichborn.

James H. Barry, editor of the San Francisco Star, in the issue of September 14 tells how he was tricked into signing the petition to have the bill to legalize racetrack gambling submitted to the people of California.

When Mr. Barry went to register, he was asked to sign the petition on the ground that it was to prevent racetrack gambling.

With this understanding, Mr. Barry signed gladly, and not others to sign. Later on he learned that he had signed a petition to give the racetrack gamblers opportunity to resume operations. Of the incident, Mr. Barry says in the Star:

"We signed this initiative petition, and we did so under the supposition that the bill was what it purported to be, a throttle for gambling in California. It appears, however, that there is a 'bug' in the measure, and that it really was designed to foster racetrack gambling in this state."

Barry's friends are inclined to regard the incident as a good joke on Barry, for Barry and Barry's paper have for years been uncompromisingly against the racetrack gamblers.

It is a joke—if a piece of deception, misrepresentation and trickery can be regarded as joking.

A REAL FAIRYLAND

Right Here in Southern California

Picturesque and beautiful! A playground grand enough for the gods. Eighteen thousand level acres of fertile and productive as the sun ever shone on, and every foot under a high state of cultivation. Great apricot, peach, walnut, pear and orange orchards—miles of the best alfalfa fields in the State. The soil is easy to work; just like one big mellow garden.

Water, literally oceans of it, and you never tasted such water in your life. It's fit to be bottled and sold by the pint and quart. This pure, sparkling elixir of good health is already piped by a network of underground conduits all over the country, and at a price below any in the State. Likewise, these lands, together with the water, are being sold for just one-half what is asked for other lands that in any way approach them in productiveness, and right under the wing of Los Angeles. To live on a ranch in this valley is like ranching in a city. In fact, our most distant acre is but a suburb to one of the prettiest, as well as the most quaint and homelike, little cities in the whole of Southern California, the City of San Jacinto. Its citizens are hospitable to a fault. You are scarcely in the valley a day till you feel acquainted with everyone. In truth, you cannot find a more desirable place to make your home, for either ranch or business purposes. The fertile, semi-tropical San Jacinto Valley is conceded by everyone who knows to be the most ideal home place in the whole State. Its whole arrangement is artistic and beautiful to look upon. It reminds one of an immense sunken garden, surrounded as it is on three sides, by a chain of most beautiful decorated mountains, its panorama of cozy homes, well-groomed ranches and stately castles on the little knolls. It's a beauty spot really beyond description. It should be seen.

A committee has been appointed with autos to show everybody around free of charge, and you will be under no obligation for the sight.

Write a card for further information. Better still, come and see it at once, for this is truly the cream of the whole country. Do not worry about terms. They will be made to suit your convenience. When Marshal Miller wants to have a little diversion he gets astride his motorcycle and goes up the Verdugo Canyon road in the upper regions of Glendale recently annexed. "There is a good broad highway sloping down" in that vicinity and the temptation to make a record over it is rarely withstood by the auto drivers who travel it. Last Monday morning the marshal brought in Bert Gilhousen, an agent for the Marmon car who was demonstrating beautifully and burning great holes in the atmosphere. He complained to Recorder Whomes about the ten-dollar fine, but that stern official told him he ought to be thankful to get off so easy and he paid the price.

MUSICAL AT "GREENWOOD."

At "Greenwood," their home on Ninth street, Dr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Green presided at a delightfully planned musical of rare excellence, which was appreciated by a number of Glendale and out-of-town guests. Miss Hilda Nolte of Los Angeles, a pianist of remarkable talent, charmed her hearers with her music. Miss Nolte is a protegee of Madame E. Castille, sister of Madame Nordica, and has recently returned from Berlin where after four years of study under Prof. Martin Krause, she graduated with first honors. Other numbers which were received with great pleasure, were vocal solos by Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Robinson, of well-known ability. Mr. Henry Sonntag, accompanied by Mrs. Robinson, delighted his audience with several violin selections. The evening was one of rare pleasure for lovers of classical music.

CANDIDATE G. RAY HORTON IN TOWN.

Among the distinguished visitors who transacted business in Glendale on Monday last was G. Ray Horton, chief deputy district attorney.

Mr. Horton is one of the candidates for judge of the Superior Court who was recently nominated by the people of Los Angeles county. The withdrawal of Judge Horton from the judicial race gives Mr. Horton fifth place in the list of five judges to be elected. "So liberal was my support at the hands of the voters of Glendale at the primary election that I have great hopes of splendid results at the coming election in November," said Mr. Horton to a NEWS representative, "and I should add a word of appreciation for the influence of the GLENDALE NEWS in my behalf, for without newspaper friends the way of the candidate is hard."

Mr. Horton has recently distinguished himself by engaging a substitute to do his work in the district attorney's office while giving his campaign his personal attention, thus considering the taxpayers' interests paramount to his own.

organizations and people from every political party, have joined in an urgent petition to our present assemblyman, Charles M. Randall, to be an independent candidate for re-election. Mr. Randall's record is pointed to by his neighbors, who is himself a resident of Highland Park, as a sufficient guarantee of faithfulness and efficiency. His name will in consequence appear upon the ballot, and his re-election will indicate the satisfaction of the people with a man of whom the speaker of the last legislature wrote, "the state needs the services of such able, fearless legislators."

A DELIGHTFUL TIME.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church held their first meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. B. Heacock. Mrs. Hutton, Mrs. Shropshire and Mrs. Kilborn assisted Mrs. Heacock. A fine program was rendered and a delightful luncheon served. Miss Lillian Shropshire gave an amusing reading, and Miss Luella Brown and Miss Florence Heacock rendered piano selections. About forty ladies were present.

Mr. P. N. McRostin of Chalfont, Mono county, arrived in Glendale with his daughter Edith and son, Ward, on Sunday evening, and are the guests of Dr. Ward. The trip was made in an Overland car in two days, 311 miles being registered. The only difficulty encountered was when a dredge on the aqueduct near Lone Pine had cut through the road and drove them into the sand.

Mr. McRostin is starting a new colony at Chalfont, eight miles north of Laws. Several Los Angeles parties are interested with him in this colony.
